George Rosen

During this session, attendees will learn the various steps that they should take in order to exit their business, such as identifying a successor or buyer, evaluating core and non-core activities, preferred financial presentation, closing, and post-closing/transition period factors that can all impact the final, realized price of the transaction.

George Rosen, Managing Director of Business For Sale Florida, has extensive experience in small business sales, mergers and acquisitions. George has been involved in hundreds of private business sales. In 1989, he helped guide a five-unit food and beverage chain through a turnaround operation amounting in an increase in profitability of over $3,000,000 and the subsequent sale of that chain.

Thereafter, George co-founded a site selection and lease negotiations firm specializing in multi-unit regional and national chain operations.

In November 2005, George joined the GP Holdings group of companies to take over operations for Business For Sale Florida's SBA 504 lending division and the Business Brokerage/M&A Division.
